

Are you looking for a new professional challenge?

With competence, confidentiality, and with no cost to you, we'll advise and help you to find a new job.

We offer:

LehrCare is an independently working recruitment agency that supports administrators, teachers, nursery teachers and educators worldwide in their search for new jobs.

Whether you are looking for a job in a school, a childcare facility, an after-school care facility, an educational publishing company or an online learning company, we can help you find the right position because ...

- we have a large and diverse selection of attractive positions and valuable contacts to potential employers. Our client schools are currently located in over 50 countries on six continents and our list grows continuously.
- we will give you competent advice, because we are educators ourselves.
- your satisfaction is top priority to us. Therefore, we will only connect you with the potential employers of your choice.
- we are discrete and our services are free of charge for you; if you are successfully placed, your new employer will pay the placement fee to us.

Why should you use LehrCare?

Finding a new job requires many resources:

- up-to-date job offers matching your profile have to be searched
- profiles of potential employers must be researched
- insider information is often missing
- many schools don't publically post all of their tentative openings
- application documents have to assembled/compiled/put together
- documents have to be copied, certified and translated
- interview appointments have to be coordinated
- travel schedules have to be arranged

This takes work, time and money and does not always have the desired results.

Why not let a team of experienced and professional recruiters handle everything?

Your advantages:

If you register with LehrCare ...

- you are reducing the time spent researching possible positions, as we will only send you current and accurate job openings that fit your profile.
- you get an information advantage, because we inform you about current job offers timely and comprehensively.
- you are reducing (printing and postage) costs, because we need your documents only once.
- you are saving time, as the initial registration is enough to apply to an unlimited number of different job vacancies.
- you are minimizing your risk, as we will only forward your application if we think the position fits your profile.
- you are increasing your chances, as we will make sure your application documents are complete and extensive and because we will recommend you for positions that suit your profile.

Still not convinced? Give us a call! We will be glad to answer your questions.

This is how it works:

- You can register on www.lehrcare.de as an administrator, teacher, or nursery teacher and create your personal application profile.
- We will inform you quickly via your email address about possible job offers that fit your profile.
- If you are interested in a position, you then send us your documents via email or post.
- If the position fits your profile, we'll call you to give you further information and advise you individually.
- In the ideal case, we'll then send your application, with your consent, to the potential employer (along with our recommendation).
- If the employer is interested, he will contact you directly and invite you for an interview.
- You would then negotiate and sign the contract directly with your future employer.

Registration, creation of profile and placement are completely free of charge for you.

Your personal data is strictly confidential.
